

When I am gone release me let me go
I have so many things to see and do you know, you mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
I gave you my love, but you can only guess.
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for all the love you have shown.
But now it's time I traveled alone.
So grieve a while for me, If grieve you must.
Then let your grief be comforted by this trust.
That's is only for a little while that we must part.
Meanwhile. bless the moments we shared keep the memories within your heart.
And though you can't see or touch me, I'm near just listen with your heart and you'll surely hear all of my love around you all soft and dear and when you must come this way alone I'll greet you with a smile and say welcome home.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down
in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside still waters.
He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.
Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil;
for thou art with me.
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
My cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
Me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
Amen.

Acknowledgments

The family of James D. Fryar, would like to thank God for sending James into our lives. Even though we are saddened by his sudden death we are rejoicing that he is now in a better place where there is no suffering or pain. We would also like to thank each and everyone who had the opportunity to deposit something into James' life and those who allowed him to deposit something into their life. James was a blessing sent from God
