

To my friend

You were my family
You were my Kin
But most of all
You were my friend
Someone I talk to daily.

I knew the phone rings drove my mom crazy,
But I didn't care because it was you.
You always knew what to say and do.
To make me laugh, and make me smile.
And the way you giggled drove me wild.
When you came over it was always fun
Because we were either laughing at something or someone.
And although we can't chat or play,
Forever in my heart, you'll always Stay

Love
All your cousin

*Do not grieve for me, But celebrate this day
For I am now in Heaven, with the angels at play
Remember the way I laughed,
and the brightness in my smile,
Remember the jokes I told,
with the innocence of a child.

For I've not gone away, but remain close to you all,
Here in the hearts of my loved ones,
Just at the beckon of memories call.

So do not grieve for me, but celebrate this day,
Remember all the good times, and all the love I gave.
Think of me with happiness, fondness if you must,
For I was blessed to know you,
You did well with God's trust.

Now think of me as smiling, in my own unique way
and do not grieve my going,
for I'm with the Lord this day.*

Obituary

Jayvon Nijee Snow, 11, a child of God called home in his tender early years.

Born April 9, 1996 in Bayonne Hospital, to Cleveland and Monique Snow. Jayvon attended School 16, Cornelia F. Bradford in Jersey City, where he lived his entire life. He was baptized at Redeemer Lutheran Church, Jersey City, where he continued to be an active member.

He was a loveable child who enjoyed talking on the phone with family and friends. He also loved reading and working on his computer. He loved to spend time with his cousin Kayla and weekends with his Uncle Kassiem, Aunt Pam, and their children. He enjoyed swimming and seemed to be a fish out of water at times.

Jayvon loved his dog, Brandy. Jayvon enjoyed listening to his distant Cousin Beyonce sing, and enjoyed going to see his sister Krystal, play high school basketball games. His favorite sport was watching NBA games while his favorite player was NJ Nets Star Jason Kidd. He spent a lot of his downtime simply, drawing pictures and creating various art projects.

Often quiet and considered shy, Jayvon loved watching television's Rachel Ray because he also liked to cook. But despite all his hobbies and interests, he loved most spending time with his family.

Jayvon was preceded in death by his god mother and aunt Willow Snow and his grandfather Cleveland Snow.

Jayvon is loved and missed by his parents Cleveland and Monique Snow, his sister Krystal, grandmothers Burnell Snow and Betty Outlaw; his grandfathers Willis Outlaw, Jr. and John Miller, Sr. and a host of aunts, uncles, his dear friend Ally as well as many other friends.
