

Nothing At All

Death is nothing at all.
I have only slipped away to the next
Room.
I am I
And You are you.
Whatever we were to each other
Will still bloom.

Call me by my nickname.
Speak to me in that easy way.
That voice you always used.
Giggle at the times
I made you laugh as if
Presently amused.

Laugh as we always laughed
At the little jokes and good times
We enjoyed together.
Play, smile, think and pray for me
Let my name and memory
Stay home with you forever.

Life means all that it ever meant.
It is the same that it ever was.
Why should I be out of mind
Because I'm out of sight?
flesh may return to earth,
But my memory never does.

And,
I am safe now.
So celebrate!!!
Don't mourn too long.
Living life to its fullest
Must resume.
For death means nothing at all.
I have only slipped away
To the next room.

MISS ME BUT LET ME GO...

WHEN I COME TO THE END OF THE ROAD
AND THE SUN HAS SET FOR ME
I WANT NO RIGHTS IN A GLOOM FILLED ROOM
WHY CRY FOR A SOUL SET FREE?

MISS ME A LITTLE BIT, BUT NOT TOO LONG
AND NOT WITH YOUR HEAD BOWED LOW
REMEMBER THE LOVE THAT WE ONCE SHARED,
MISS ME BUT LET ME GO

FOR THIS JOURNEY THAT WE ALL MUST TAKE
AND EACH MUST GO ALONE
IS ALL A PART OF THE MASTER'S PLAN
A STEP ON THE ROAD TO HOME

WHEN YOU ARE LONELY AND SICK AT HEART
GO TO THE FRIENDS WE KNOW,
AND BURY YOUR SORROWS IN DOING GOOD DEEDS
MISS ME BUT LET ME GO!

Obituary

Omar Sharif Townes Jr. of Newark, NJ was born January 27, 1992 At 5:53 PM at Beth Israel Hospital to Omar Sharif Townes Sr. and Fatisha Hutchins.

Omar was the second of ten children. He received his early education at Heywood Avenue School and graduated from Grey Charter. He later went on to graduate receiving his High School Diploma from Weequahic High School in 2010 an accomplishment that he was extremely proud of. Being a jack of many self learned trades he could fix anything but in his last days he finally found a passion and it was nursing but the most high in His wisdom called him home on February 5th, 2010 6:46 am at Beth Israel Hospital, the same hospital where he was born.

Omar was an intelligent inquisitive child a busy body always exploring his surroundings. Omar had a personality full of wit, charisma, and charm with-a big smile to match. It was hard not to fall under his spell and be at his beck and call. Omar loved his 9 sisters and brothers and took care of them. There was not a person to meet Omar and not love him. He loved music, singing, and loved to battle on the dance floor for the number 1 spot he was a master he loved to dance so much he joined a dance group and later he became a party promoter. Omar loved movies and fashion even modeled in hair shows. He could always be found standing in the mirror looking for the perfect look, laughing, joking, watching cartoons, playing video games, and even cutting hair at his father's barbershop. Most importantly, Omar was fearless. Omar was a fearless, extremely independent even as a child. Without permission he would ride his skates then upgraded to his bike on a journey to all the surround cities, visiting everyone that he loved even up until till the last days of life with his sickness walking with a cane and 1 shoe. Omar endured much pain but nothing and no one could stop him from being with the ones he loved. Omar was never afraid to live life, to grow into manhood, to make mistakes and learn from them. Omar was fearless and lived his life by his rules the way he wanted to, up to his last breath when his body gave up his spirit did not.

On July 27th, 2010 unknowing to what would lie ahead, Omar would give us a gift in the birth of his son Omar Sharif Townes III with Tahedah Monea to carry on his legacy.

Left to cherish his memory is his loving mother and father, Omar Sharif Townes Sr. and Fatisha Hutchins, his Step-Father Gregory Bowens two Grandmothers: Jerusha Carter and Gloria Chandler, His son Omar Sharif Townes III, Four sisters: Aniyah, Fatisha, Ahchaaryh, Zania, Five brothers: Shamar, Khyree, Izaraa, Ahlayah, and Keenan, Eight Aunts: Sakina, Shea, (six other mothers that happen to be aunts) Sandra, Redd, Mook, Essie, Wanda, and Becky, Three uncles: Nutt, Pete, and Ick, four great uncles, nine great aunts, a Godmother: Tamkia Irby, and a host of cousins and friends. Omar was proceeded in death by his grandparents: Manford and Gloria Townes, Willie and Janice Hutchins, and his Great-grandparents: Lee and Annie Mae Thomas, and Dozier Carter and a special thanks to his big sis EJ.
