

I'M FREE

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.*

I took His hand when I heard him call;

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way;

I found that place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss;

Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much;

Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.

Perhaps my time seems all to brief;

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free.

Obituary

Charles DaJoun Conley "Aka: DJ, was born on September 9, 1991 to Lorraine and Charles A. Conley in Summit, NJ. Charles departed this life on Sunday, October 17, 2010 in Dover, Delaware.

Charles was raised in Plainfield, NJ and 12 years ago moved to Potter's in Edison, NJ where he attended John Adams Schools. Charles then went to Waynesville High School in Pulaski County, MO for the 9th grade; while there he also played football (Tigers) and was one of the Star players. Charles returned to Edison in 2007, and went to J.P. Stevens High School and graduated in 2009. Currently he was a freshman at Wesley College in Dover, Delaware.

Charles was an outstanding football player; he received Most Valuable Player in his Junior and Senior Year. He was chosen to receive a Football Award from the Top 100 High School Players in New Jersey, he later was chosen to play in the All Star Game - North South Bowl.

Charles had a love for football, he was very passionate about the game, but he also had a love for people, he would try and steer his peers in the right direction, he would try to be your father, your counselor and your friend when needed, he always wore that big smile, he always knew just when to give that compliment to make sure he got what he needed especially with his teachers, if that meant that his Mom had to cook and or bake something at the last minute to go with that compliment he got it done at any cost.

Charles had many aspirations but his dream was to become a Firefighter.

Charles was preceded in death by his Grandfather's Rudy Ball and Samuel Hardwick, and Uncle-Calvin McCrea.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his loving and devoted mother Lorraine Conley (Bernard) his Father Charles A. Conley; sisters, Ronnay Morgan, Amayai Conley, LaKefia Conley; brother-Terrell Hannah, Grandmother's Shirley McCrea, Virginia Conley; Aunt's Major Shelia Phillips (Frank), Sandra Butler (Prescott) Diane Finney; Uncle Frank Conley (Nicole); two nieces TaNajah Kersey, Armarey Lee. And a Host of Cousins, relatives and Friends. Thanks Lil Moma Hill.

The Conley Family extends deep appreciation to all our many friends for expressions of love shown during our time of bereavement.
